

FERRIS, KATE DICAMILLO

March Books and Beyond Title

Book Overview

During the summer before fifth grade, Ferris Wilkey has her hands full with her little sister terrorizing the town, her Aunt Shirley moving into their basement and her grandmother seeing a ghost--one who has wild, impractical and illuminating plans.

Discussion Questions

- Charisse tells Ferris to be herself and not let the world tell her who she is, rather the other way around. Who would you tell the world you are?
- Ferris feels homesick even though she is at home. Why? Have you ever felt like this?
- Why do you think Boomer and Charisse were the only ones that could see the ghost?
- Ferris feels homesick even though she is at home. Why? Have you ever felt like this?
